On The Team: Bruno Mwakaswaya, Volunteer Accountant and ICO Malawi Team Member

Bruno was born and raised in Karonga in northern Malawi. He currently lives in Blantyre, Malawi's largest city and commercial capital, with the love of his life, his wife, Chrissie Ella (pictured left together). He works as an Internal Auditor for the Malawi Revenue Authority and is the Financial Controller at his church. Bruno enjoys public speaking and dancing. He volunteers his time to Chikondi to help with our accounting and administration. He first heard about us through Edass, our Head Matron, in December

2013 and felt an intuitive draw towards helping the children and Chikondi. Bruno was orphaned at the early age of 12 so he knows firsthand the struggles that not only Chikondi's children face, but also the other estimated 1.2 million orphaned and abandoned children in Malawi. He feels inspired to help children not only survive, but thrive and become productive members of society. His hope for the future of Chikondi is that we are able to grow and become a place that helps to raise, with emotional growth as a key, thousands of accomplished citizens.
